2022 ANNUAL

BISHOP'S APPEAL

We have raised 83 gifts worth $17,550 bringing our parish to 27.95% of its $62,800 goal. Any and all gifts are greatly appreciated. Thanks to all who gave or pledged!

During these difficult times, please remember to support our local bulletin advertisers. Make the back 2 pages of this publication your "go to place" for local business help. They can only help us if we continue to help them!

HELP WANTED!!!

We, as the community of St. Thomas Parish, are blessed by the tremendous witness and involvement of our young and old families and individuals in proclaiming the Gospel of the Kingdom. Why do we do all these remarkable works of charity? Maybe today you can commit one Sunday of your busy schedule to help our parish as a Lector, Minister of the Holy Eucharist, maybe as an Usher or Hospitality Minister? Perhaps we could grow our Parish Ministries, to some scale, back to the so called "before Covid pandemic times" numbers? We do all we do at St. Thomas because we know it is the right thing to do, to help others, to be nice, to be kind, to have high moral standards, to just simply be a decent human being. Whatever the answer might be, I am very proud to be a part of you, of a great community of faith, that shows that faith in practice so well.

Fr. Michael

Would you like to be more involved with our parish family? Please consider joining one of our ministries.

I am interested in assisting the Parish in the following ministries (check all that apply):

Mass Ministries:

Usher     Lector     Eucharistic Minister     Choir

Adult Altar Server (to assist at funerals, no experience necessary, we will train)

Other Ministries (for a brief explanation of each, please click on "Parish Ministries" on our website):

Catechist     Catechist Assistant     Prayer Shawl

Food Pantry     Bereavement     Hospitality

Thrift Store     Office Volunteer     Money Counter (Monday Mornings)

REFLECTION FROM FR. RALPH

Now that we have made the journey during the Season of Lent, have recalled the institution of the Eucharist and the priesthood of the Church on Holy Thursday, and observed the Paschal Mystery of Jesus Christ; that is, His passion, death, and resurrection, culminating in the blessings of grace that comes with Easter Sunday, we now find ourselves in the midst of the Easter Season. The Easter Season began on Saturday night at the Easter Vigil and will continue until Pentecost Sunday. Unfortunately, for some Catholics, Easter Sunday was a high point for the year, which, along with Christmas, provide a very brief glimpse into the mystery and wonder of the Catholic faith if left to merely twice during the annual Liturgical Cycle of the Church. Many Catholics returned to the basic routine that they knew before Easter Sunday, or even before Ash Wednesday. For some, the joy of Easter will be fresh and strong at first, but then the uplifting moment experienced on Easter Sunday will dwindle over time.

This brings to mind the Parable of the Sower in the Gospels: “A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path and was trampled, and the birds of the sky ate it up. Some seed fell on rocky ground, and when it grew, it withered for lack of moisture. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew with it and choked it (Lk 8:5-7).” Jesus then goes on to explain the parable to the apostles: “This is the meaning of the parable. The seed is the word of God. Those on the path are the ones who have heard, but the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts that they may not believe and be saved. Those on rocky ground are the ones who, when they hear, receive the word with joy, but they have no root; they believe only for a time and fall away in time of trial. As for the seed that fell among thorns, they are the ones who have heard, but as they go along, they are choked by the anxieties and riches and pleasures of life, and they fail to produce mature fruit (Lk 8:11-14).”

With this in mind, we all have a unique opportunity to either adopt a new practice of our Catholic faith or persevere in whatever took root in our hearts during the weeks that led us to this Sunday. Since this Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, perhaps it will serve us best. Divine Mercy Sunday is the result of the reflections found in the Diary of Sister Faustina Kowalska (otherwise spelled Faustyna), a Catholic nun and mystic, who, through her personal writings describe apparitions and conversations with Jesus Christ revealing to her a devotion to the Divine Mercy which is to be observed on the second Sunday of Easter, the Sunday that brings to a close the Octave of Easter - in its shortest form, a Sunday that involves mercy, forgiveness, and grace for the salvation of souls.

Truly, this can be a time for all of us to strive for perseverance in the practice of the faith. We are in a time in which we can consider the blessings that flow from the words and deeds of Our Lord Jesus Christ with an emphasis on His death, resurrection, His glorious ascension into heaven, and the gift of the Holy Spirit to His Church. It has been a gift and blessing for all of us who have made this journey, and we are called to continue on our way, in this life, for the sake of the life to come. I leave you with these words from a homily by an unknown ancient author: “The Easter festival brings the grace of holiness from heaven to men. Through the repeated celebration of the sacred mysteries, they receive the spiritual nourishment of the sacraments. Fostered at the very heart of holy Church, the fellowship of one community worships the one God, adoring the triple name of his essential holiness, and together with the prophet sings the psalm which belongs to this yearly festival: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.” From an Easter homily by an ancient author, The Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. 3, Lenten Season-Easter Season, Catholic Book Publishing Co., NY, 1975, p. 583.
