ST. THOMAS

THE APOSTLE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Jesus said,
"This is my blood
of the covenant,
which will be
shed for many.
Amen, I say to you,
I shall not drink again
the fruit of the vine
until the day
when I drink it
new in the kingdom of God."

Planning a wedding? Congratulations!!

Call the office to secure your date. We are having ceremonies with all current COVID guidelines in place. We also live-stream your ceremony for those who can't be with you or don't feel comfortable with participating in person. You need to contact the office at least 9 months prior to your chosen date.

WELCOME BACK!

The Bishop has issued the following guidelines for indoor Mass in response to the state's new directives:

- ♦ Masks are no longer required outside on church property or inside the church for those who are fully vaccinated.
- ♦ If a person is not fully vaccinated, that person must still wear a mask.
- ♦ Fully vaccinated people are free to continue wearing a mask.
- ♦ All pews are available for seating. A small section of pews will be designated for those wishing to social distance.
- ♦ Sign-in is no longer required.
- ♦ Altar servers, Extraordinary Ministers, and Readers are allowed to return to their ministries.
- ♦ Offertory processions may begin again.
- ♦ The exchange of peace is allowed - remains optional.
- ♦ Our 9AM Family Mass resumed on Pentecost Weekend; we encourage our children and parents to participate as readers, offertory gift bearers, and helpers with the homilies designated for children.
- ♦ Office Hours and procedures will be announced shortly.

In addition,

- Disinfecting the church before and after weekend Masses will continue.
- Sanitary procedures for Holy Communion remain. Clergy and Extraordinary Ministers distributing Holy Communion will wear masks.

We're so happy to have you back! Fr. Mirek and Fr. Ralph

REFLECTION FROM FR. RALPH

In recent weeks we have observed the Ascension of the Lord, Pentecost, followed by Trinity Sunday. This weekend we are observing Corpus Christi, the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ; and we could say that we have been making our way to the most essential practice of the Catholic Faith, that is, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in which we receive the body and blood of Jesus, just as He commanded us. Consider this from the catechism of the Catholic Church: "The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up with the Eucharist and are oriented toward it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ himself, our Pasch. The Eucharist is the efficacious sign and sublime cause of that communion in the divine life and that unity of the People of God by which the Church is kept in being. It is the culmination both of God's action sanctifying the world in Christ and of the worship men offer to Christ and through him to the Father in the Holy Spirit. Finally, by the Eucharistic celebration we already unite ourselves with the heavenly liturgy and anticipate eternal life, when God will be all in all." (CCC 1324-1326)

Clearly, from a sacramental and liturgical point of view, most especially, sacramentally, we both practice and participate in what we consider the pre-eminent form of worship that is "Roman Catholic," and we do this whenever we go to Sunday Mass. But we need not restrict ourselves to Sunday Mass. As you know, along with Weddings and Funerals, daily Mass is offered here at St. Thomas. We celebrate Mass here twice a day and, we are the only Parish in Town that does this! One Mass at 7 am for commuters in the Morning, and then another at 5:30 pm. We also have Monday night Adoration every Monday from after the 5:30 pm Mass at 6 pm until 8 pm.

So, with this in mind, we encourage you to continue your Catholic discipleship with frequent and consistent participation in the ministry of the Church, sustaining your faith with worthy reception of Our Lord's body and blood, with a reminder from St. Thomas Aquinas regarding the essentially personal and redemptive nature of the Eucharist: "Since it was the will of God's only-begotten Son that men should share in his divinity, he assumed our nature in order that by becoming man he might make men gods. Moreover, when he took our flesh he dedicated the whole of its substance to our salvation. He offered his body to God the Father on the altar of the cross as a sacrifice for our reconciliation. He shed his blood for our ransom and purification, so that we might be redeemed from our wretched state of bondage and cleansed from all sin. But to ensure that the memory of so great a gift would abide with us forever, he left his body as food and his blood as drink for the faithful to consume in the form of bread and wine."

It was to impress the vastness of this love more firmly upon the hearts of the faithful that our Lord instituted this sacrament at the Last Supper. As he was on the point of leaving the world to go to the Father, after celebrating the Passover with his disciples, he left it as a perpetual memorial of his passion. It was the fulfillment of ancient figures and the greatest of all his miracles, while for those who were to experience the sorrow of his departure, it was destined to be a unique and abiding consolation." (From a work by St. Thomas Aquinas, priest, Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. 3, Catholic Book Publishing, Co., 1976, 610)
