MEMORIAL MASS OR FUNERAL

With Masses now moved into our church, we are scheduling Memorial Masses for those who died during the virus period. Anyone who wishes to arrange for a Memorial Mass is asked to call the office in order to set up an appointment to plan the mass. We are now also allowed to have a funeral in the church. If you would like a full funeral mass, please let your funeral home know your wishes so they can contact us to schedule. If you are not comfortable with a group gathering at this time, we will continue to have a graveside only service as an option. Keep in mind that the current regular mass guidelines concerning capacity and social distancing parameters will be followed at all funerals, memorials, and graveside services as well.

If you would like to arrange a baptism, please call the office at (203) 866-3141. If this is your first baby, you will need to complete the Pre-Baptism class with one of our priests. We will work with you to find the best day and time to fit your schedule. The current mass guidelines concerning capacity and social distancing parameters will be followed at all baptisms as well.

REFLECTION FROM FR. RALPH

As we consider those who left us, through grace, the best possible example of discipleship in Jesus Christ, on this All Saints Day, Sunday, November 1st, consider the following quote: "The Church has always believed that the apostles and Christ's martyrs who had given the supreme witness of faith and charity by shedding their blood, are closely joined with us in Christ; and she has always venerated them with special devotion, together with the Blessed Virgin Mary and the holy angels. The Church has piously implored the aid of their intercession. To these were soon added, also, those who had more closely imitated Christ's virginity and poverty, and finally others whom the outstanding practice of the Christian virtues and the divine charisms recommended to the pious devotion and imitation of the faithful." The quote continues: "It is supremely fitting, therefore, that we love those friends and coheirs of Jesus Christ...that we render due thanks to God for them and suppliantly invoke them and have recourse to their prayers, their power and help in obtaining benefits from God through His Son, Jesus Christ, Who is our Redeemer and Savior" (Lives of the Saints: For Every Day of the Year, Catholic Book Publishing Co., New York, 1989, p. 4-5, edit mine).

As you know, the Catholic faith we now strive to practice is founded on the scriptures and the tradition set before us as a guide and example for us to follow. Accordingly, the Holy Ones of God, who have gone up before us, have left us not only a most excellent example that our faith and way of life is something that we can live, even in our time; we have before us a certain hope that we can ultimately arrive to the great promise of all ages—the resurrection of the dead and the glory of God.

Therefore, may we all continue to strive for the hope and promise given us, not from any man or woman, not according to any temporal success, not from any celebrity, and perhaps most importantly and immediately, not from those currently in power or most recognized in any discipline known, but only in Jesus Christ. Have a happy and blessed All Saints Day!

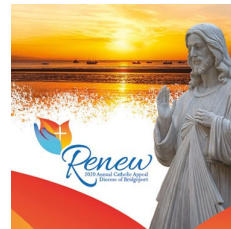

John Ralph

The Diocese of Bridgeport will no longer participate in the National Collection for the "Catholic Campaign for Human Development," scheduled to take place this year on Sunday, November 22nd. In place of that collection, on the same day, November 22nd, the new annual collection for the "Health and Welfare Fund for the Retired Priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport" will take place. This collection will be used to offset costs related to insurance benefits (medical and automobile), the Convocation and annual retreat for all retired priests, which are currently covered in large part by the Diocese, as well as to supplement priest pension contributions.
