The 2022 Bishop's Appeal provides the funds for the pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Bridgeport. This year's theme, A Bridge Home, highlights hope, renewal and evangelization in our Diocese and invests in services that continue to engage those in their faith and build a strong bridge to so many who are struggling. When you receive your Appeal mailing, please take time to read the information thoroughly, how you can help and give prayerful consideration when contemplating your sacrificial gift to the campaign. Thank you.

Your Gift to the 2022 Bishop's Appeal supports future priests...

Future priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport receive their formation at seminaries chosen by the Bishop to best suit the needs of the seminarian and of the diocese. Preparation for the Priesthood takes anywhere from six to eight years, depending on the age and educational background of the man when he enters. All seminarians complete graduate level studies in theology before ordination.

Our seminarians will become the priests who will preach the Gospel and administer the Sacraments in your parish, and who will accompany and guide you and your family through the joys and sorrows of this world to Eternal Life. Your prayers and financial support to the Bishop's Appeal help ensure that we have the well-formed priests we need to praise God and to save souls. Thank you for your gift.

Ways to give to "A Bridge Home" campaign:

My Dear Friends in Christ, "A Bridge Home" is the theme of the 2022 Bishop's Appeal, formerly called the Annual Catholic Appeal, and it highlights hope, renewal, and evangelization in our diocese. The Appeal invests in services that continue to engage those in their faith and build a strong bridge to so many who are struggling. Now it is more important than ever to reunite our Church, affirm our faithful and welcome others back.

I am grateful for your support this past year as we continue to deal with the Covid-19 pandemic and we once again gather within our parishes, homes, and communities. This is possible because of your faith and generosity.

The Diocese of Bridgeport has a long tradition of providing programs that serve those in need and prepare for the future of our Catholic faith. This year's Appeal goal is $8.1 million and remains unchanged from last year.

I personally invite you to join with me in making a gift and building "A Bridge Home," one living stone at a time. We have been through much together as a family in faith, and we have much to look forward to because we are a people of hope. I pray for God's blessings on you and your family.

Faithfully in Christ,
Frank Caggiano
 Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano

REFLECTION FROM FR. RALPH

When we consider the technological advances made, let's say, in the past five years, I think that we can agree that what we have seen is nothing short of astonishing. Further, it seems that the recent developments in the area of surgical procedures are well beyond what we thought possible twenty years ago. I have experienced this personally myself, and we all know someone who has had a complicated procedure far less invasive than what surgery used to involve. Now, to clear the air, putting it simply, the Catholic Church embraces the various scientific disciplines, if ethical, among the many gifts we possess that make it possible to improve the human condition.

However, with that said, as Catholics and as people of faith we are called to discern and use the supernatural gifts of the Holy Spirit which we receive at baptism (strengthened at confirmation) so that we can contribute something positive to the human condition, while at the same time, we can most fully participate in the great Plan of Salvation. There are, as you know, seven gifts of the Holy Spirit we receive as mentioned above: wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude or perseverance, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. They enable us to discern more deeply the existence of God, they make it possible for us to grasp the realities of our life and existence with full meaning and purpose, and they help us to think and act in a way that is of a higher order so that the way in which we live is with right judgement according to God's will.

In the first reading this weekend, we can see a certain kind of wisdom in David, when, though he could, he did not kill Saul because he had a sense of what was of God, even though both he and Saul were imperfect men. In the second reading, St. Paul helps us to understand that though we are natural, God chose to work through our state of life and being through the power of His spirit, inviting us to a spiritual way of living for the sake of the life to come. Finally, in the Gospel of Luke this weekend (Lk 6:20-49) known as the Sermon on the Plain, as well as in the Sermon on the Mount found in the Gospel of Matthew (Matt 5-7), by way of His preaching, Jesus teaches us how we are to live and how we can improve the human condition by beginning with what is well above and beyond temporal, domestic, and financial means.

Jesus challenges us to begin with and within our hearts, our minds, and most importantly, within the depths of our souls. Considering that we tend towards, in fact, we strive for, greater learning and knowledge in whatever good we do through our intellects and the more practical disciplines of which we have advanced so impressively, as Catholics and as people of faith, we must also strive for what God has revealed to us, what God gives us, and what we need before anything else - the grace and power of God. As St. Bernard of Clairvaux, Cistercian monk and abbot reminds us: "Let us look for the food which does not perish - our salvation. Let us work in the vineyard of the Lord to earn our daily wage in the wisdom that says: the field is the world. Let us work in it and dig up wisdom, its hidden treasure, a treasure we all look for and want to obtain." From a sermon by Saint Bernard, abbot, the Liturgy of the Hours, Vol. III, Ordinary Time, Weeks 1-17, Catholic Book Publishing Co., NY, 1972, p. 203.
