HAPPY 85th ANNIVERSARY TO ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE PARISH!!!!

On May 1, 1935, Most Reverend Maurice F. McAuliffe, Bishop of the Diocese of Hartford which included the entire State of Connecticut, established the Parish of St. Thomas the Apostle in East Norwalk with Reverend Thomas J. Sullivan appointed as the first pastor. The parish began holding services on Sunday, May 5, 1935, in the auditorium of Roger Ludlow Junior High School. We numbered about 900 parishioners who were former members of St. Mary and St. Joseph churches. Fundraising began within a week of Fr. Sullivan's appointment; sufficient funds were raised to begin land acquisition within six weeks of the establishment of the parish. By June, the parish had title to the 5 properties with frontage on East Avenue between Myrtle and Fitch Streets. Four of them contained buildings. The Rider property at 201 East Ave contained the largest building which was readily adaptable for use as a temporary church. The temporary church was formally opened and blessed on August 11, about 100 days after the formation of the parish. The dedication of the church we have today took place on April 2, 1950. We have had 6 prior pastors with Bishop Caggiano appointing Fr. Miroslaw Stachurski as our seventh pastor and friend on May 24, 2014. For the full history of St. Thomas, go to our website

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Thomas Parishioners,

This weekend, as we celebrate the 4th Sunday in Easter, especially here in the United States of America, we implore Jesus, the Good Shepherd, to bless our Diocese of Bridgeport with many vocations to the Priesthood and to Consecrated Life. I ask you, my friends, to keep in mind that over several decades now the number of priests in the Dioceses of The United States have declined rather rapidly. We all need to foster the idea of vocations especially to the particular ministry of the Holy Orders in the Church. A couple of years ago, Pope Francis wrote a beautiful letter to the faithful about vocations and the idea of Jesus being a Good Shepherd. I invite you to read it again, and please, plead with you: pray for vocations to the priesthood for our diocese:

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Fourth Sunday of Easter offers us the figure of the Good Shepherd who knows his sheep: he calls them, he feeds them and he guides them. For over fifty years the universal Church has celebrated this Sunday as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. In this way she reminds us of our need to pray, as Jesus himself told his disciples, so that "the Lord of the harvest may send out labourers into his harvest" (Lk 10:2). Jesus command came in the context of his sending out missionaries. He called not only the twelve Apostles, but another seventy-two disciples whom he then sent out, two by two, for the mission (cf. Lk 10:1-6). Since the Church "is by her very nature missionary" (Ad Gentes, 2), the Christian vocation is necessarily born of the experience of mission. Hearing and following the voice of Christ the Good Shepherd, means letting ourselves be attracted and guided by him, in consecration to him; it means allowing the Holy Spirit to draw us into this missionary dynamism, awakening within us the desire, the joy and the courage to offer our own lives in the service of the Kingdom of God.

To offer one's life in mission is possible only if we are able to leave ourselves behind. On this 52nd World Day of Prayer for Vocations, I would like reflect on that particular "exodus" which is the heart of vocation, or better yet, of our response to the vocation God gives us.(...) At the root of every Christian vocation we find this basic movement, which is part of the experience of faith. Belief means transcending ourselves, leaving behind our comfort and the inflexibility of our ego in order to center our life in Jesus Christ. It means leaving, like Abraham, our native place and going forward with trust, knowing that God will show us the way to a new land. This "going forward" is not to be viewed as a sign of contempt for one's life, one's feelings, one's own humanity. On the contrary, those who set out to follow Christ find life in abundance by putting themselves completely at the service of God and his kingdom. Jesus says: "Everyone who has left home or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life" (Mt 19:29). All of this is profoundly rooted in love. (...) This calls for a constantly renewed attitude of conversion and transformation, an incessant moving forward, a passage from death to life like that celebrated in every liturgy, an experience of passover. From the call of Abraham to that of Moses, from Israel's pilgrim journey through the desert to the conversion preached by the prophets, up to the missionary journey of Jesus which culminates in his death and resurrection, vocation is always a work of God. He leads us beyond our initial situation, frees us from every enslavement, breaks down our habits and our indifference, and brings us to the joy of communion with him and with our brothers and sisters. Responding to God's call, then, means allowing him to help us leave ourselves and our false security behind, and to strike out on the path which leads to Jesus Christ, the origin and destiny of our life and our happiness.(...) The Virgin Mary, model of every vocation, did not fear to utter her "fiat" in response to the Lord's call. She is at our side and she guides us. With the generous courage born of faith, Mary sang of the joy of leaving herself behind and entrusting to God the plans she had for her life. Let us turn to her, so that we may be completely open to what God has planned for each one of us, so that we can grow in the desire to go out with tender concern towards others (cf. Lk 1:39). May the Virgin Mary protect and intercede for us all.

From the Vatican, 29 March 2015 Palm Sunday
