EDUCATING STUDENTS WITH A MILD TO MODERATE
LEARNING DISABILITY IN AN ACADEMICALLY RICH AND FAITH-FILLED ENVIRONMENT.

REFLECTION FROM FR. RALPH

So, here we are, and the gifts are unwrapped; people will begin to take down their Christmas trees and lights; most people traveling have returned home; and the leftovers are gone. It's over. Or is it?

As it is for so many people, and like so many of the greater events in our culture; the Superbowl, the World Series, and many of the major federal holidays, a significant event has come and gone; and all the cultural hype that preceded the Sacred Mystery of the Nativity has subsided, and the return to the grind leaves it all behind us.

But we must remember that we thus far have observed the Octave of Christmas, the martyrdom of St. Stephen, first martyr; the Holy Innocents; the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph; the Holy Mother of God on the 1st of January; and tomorrow is the Baptism of the Lord.

All of these that follow Christmas are a sign to us that we are just beginning! We are at the beginning of a New Liturgical Year, and the readings that will follow both during the weekday Masses and on Sundays will prepare us to observe the Passion of the Lord and the Resurrection of Jesus on Easter Sunday.

This is the time for us to begin the Journey of Faith by bringing with us, carrying within our hearts, the joy, hope, and promise of our Salvation in Jesus Christ. We may have put away all that glitters and glows; but we must not allow our relationship with Jesus to be like that coin the unprofitable servant buried in the ground, thinking that what we have recently experienced will increase in value on its own; or even worse, fail to be like the woman who swept her entire house to find the lost coin, and worse even still, allow the seed that was planted during this time to be as Jesus taught us in the Parable of the Sower: "A farmer went out to sow his seed. As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop - a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. Whoever has ears, let them hear (Mt 13:3-9)."

As we, throughout the year, strive to be faithful disciples of Jesus Christ, as we face the challenges and the struggles that lay before us; as we eagerly embrace the opportunities and blessings that God will bestow upon us, may we always keep in mind and heart that God loves us, and Jesus will be with us, if we allow him to walk with us. As St. Paul tells us in his Letter to the Romans: "Let love be sincere; hate what is evil, hold on to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; anticipate one another in showing honor. Do not grow slack in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer (Rom 12:9-12)."

Fr. Ralph
