WAYS TO JOIN OUR FBC FAMILY:

- By Believer's Baptism: After receiving Jesus as Lord and Savior, believers identify with Jesus and follow His example by being baptized by immersion.
- By Transfer of Letter: Moving your membership from another Baptist church.
- By Statement of Faith: Stating that you have already received Jesus as your Lord and Savior and followed Him in believer's baptism.

A Word from our Pastor, Dr. Bill Skaar

Last Sunday was a blessing to see more of our FBC family come in person, while at the same time seeing that our simulcast views continue to be strong. We were blessed to see four people baptized in April and we had four additions to our FBC family last week. The trends and conditions in our area and among our church family have given us confidence in the Lord to open mid-week ministry activities with children and youth. I am spending Wednesday evenings having a time with the parents sharing principles from the Word about parenting and spending time in fellowship and prayer for families. The stewardship of our FBC family shows faithfulness and commitment to God's Kingdom. The month of May will hold many blessings as we gather for worship and Bible Study both in person and through simulcast and Zoom technology. The Lord is at work and I'm thrilled that we are partners together in His Kingdom!

God is good. You are loved. Welcome to worship!
