ADSW Holiday Party

Please join ADSW for a festive holiday luncheon at the historic complex, The Westchester. Guests will first gather in the lobby to hear remarks by President Steve Knight on the significance of The Westchester, one of Washington's most noteworthy co-ops from the interwar years.

Following remarks, everyone will proceed to the Terrace Room in the DeCarlo restaurant, adjacent to the Lobby, for an informal reception followed by lunch.

Lunch will consist of 3 courses which includes choice of one soft beverage.

ADSW Members: $60.00 per person

Non ADSW Members: $80.00 per person

First Course (choice of)

Caesar Salad

Soup of the Day

Second Course (Choice of)

Agnolotti

Chicken Limoncello

Salmon Scallopini

Third Course (Choice of)

Tiramisu

Pistachio Cheesecake

Spumoni Bomba

Alcoholic drinks, including a specialty crafted holiday cocktail, will be available for purchase.

During dessert, guests will be entertained with some fun vintage Vitaphone and other video shorts presented by Jim Linz.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, ADSW will be drawing a name from attendees to receive a holiday gift of a French Fashion Print.

Parking is free. Enter the main gates off of Cathedral Avenue and stay to the right. Look for the stone portico with semi-circular drive leading up to it with a flagpole in front. This is the main entrance to The Westchester complex. Park any place along the road where there is an open spot.
