Art Deco International is the operating name of the International Coalition of Art Deco Societies (ICADS), a global consortium of more than thirty organizations focused on Art Deco architecture and design. Founded in 1991, Art Deco International members societies are drawn from Europe, North and South America, Australasia, and the Asia Pacific region. Art Deco design was popular all around the world in the first half of the 20th century and continues to have a strong influence on everything from fashion to furniture, including industrial design, architecture, film and advertising.

April 2021 has been declared as “World Art Deco Month”. Art Deco International will host a diverse menu of online events and, where practical, in-person events – all designed to showcase the many aspects of the Art Deco style that includes architecture, design and entertainment.

Art Deco International has designated April 28 as “World Art Deco Day”. This day was chosen because that was the date in 1925 when the International Exhibition of Modern Decorative and Industrial Arts – the event that inspired the term “Art Deco,” opened its doors to the public in Paris.

The goal of “World Art Deco Day” is to raise the visibility of the many societies that are members of ICADS by bringing attention to educational, preservation and social activities being regularly carried out.

“We are thrilled to launch the first annual World Art Deco Month and World Art Deco Day,” said Art Deco International president Joe Loundy of the Chicago Art Deco Society. “We are confident that in coming years this celebration will feature even more online and ‘live’ presentations, including the World Congresses on Art Deco in 2023 and 2025, in Miami Beach and Paris, respectively.”

Proclamation

ART DECO HERITAGE WEEK
April 22, 2021 – April 29, 2021

WHEREAS, the International Coalition of Art Deco Societies declared April 28, 2021 as World Art Deco Day, in recognition of the opening the 1925 International Exhibition of Modern Decorative and Industrial Arts in Paris, where the Art Deco style debuted; and

WHEREAS, during the period encompassing the 1920s through the 1940s, the Art Deco aesthetic movement flourished, quickly taking hold around the world and in America, including being celebrated at several U.S. world's fairs; and

WHEREAS, Washington, DC boasts many exceptional examples of art deco architecture, such as the Folger Shakespeare Library in SE, the Hecht's Company Warehouse in NE, and the Greyhound Bus Station in NW, as well as sculptures and murals; and

WHEREAS, many of the cultural stars of the Art Deco era had roots in the District including Duke Ellington, Billie Burke, and Kate Smith; and

WHEREAS, the Art Deco Society of Washington (ADSW) was founded in 1982 to foster awareness, preservation, and appreciation of the Art Deco era's decorative, industrial, architectural, and cultural arts, and has since greatly contributed to the enrichment of DC and its surroundings; and

WHEREAS, the Art Deco Society of Washington, joined by other organizations, has organized a week of activities to celebrate Washington, DC's rich Art Deco heritage and the varied representations of Art Deco:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, THE MAYOR OF WASHINGTON, DC, do hereby proclaim April 22-29, 2021 in Washington, DC as "ART DECO HERITAGE WEEK."

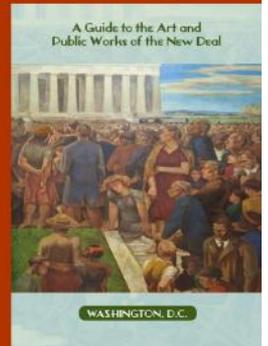

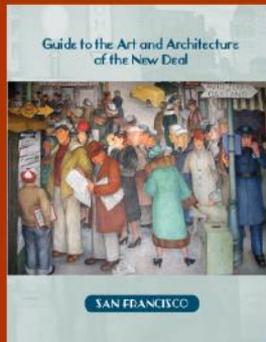

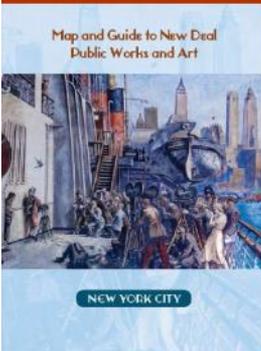

A RESOURCE FOR TEACHERS, STUDENTS, HISTORIANS, PRESERVATIONISTS
AND ANYONE SEEKING TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THE NATION'S HERITAGE.
