Sedgwick Gardens

One of the most distinguished and eccentric apartment buildings in DC is located at 3726 Connecticut Ave. NW. Built in 1931, it was the work of Mihran Mesrobian, an Armenian-American architect.

Built with charming architectural style, Sedgwick Gardens captures both historical character and modern conveniences. Expansive floor plans offer generous space, remodeled gourmet kitchens with designer cabinetry, new windows, fresh appliances, and distinct accents such as built-in bookcases and gleaming hardwood floors are only some of the many reasons the community is one of DC's Best Addresses.
