VOLUNTEER – JERRI

Milan Sew Day

Once a hairstylist, Jerri is now retired. On this particular day, she was cutting fabric. So, I guess you could say, she is pretty proficient with scissors in one way or another.

Her mom and grandma taught her to sew when she was about 8 or 9 years old. She sewed a 3-piece suit at one time and even her own wedding dress, and later sewed clothing for her 4 children as they were growing up. But none of them took up the craft. Now she has a treasure of 8 grandchildren, ages 4-19.

I found it unique that she and her husband play mandolin and guitar in an “Old Swing” band playing in local wineries and festivals.

Jerri still sews or stays busy doing something.

Why Snuggled in Hope Quilts?

“I want to give back to people.
This was a good group to join,
and I am having a good time doing it.”

Thank you, Jerri!
For your skills, knowledge and many contributions to Snuggled in Hope Quilts
