VOLUNTEER – Deb Lexington Sew Day

Meet Deb, “I hate Tumblers”, from our Lexington group. These are the first words Kyle remembers hearing from Deb. We all say things that just stick in someone else’s mind.

Deb is a retired 8th grade math teacher. She and Melinda, another of our Lexington volunteers, were co-workers and the 2 of them still make quite a team. During her career as a teacher, being the mother of 3 boys, she wasn’t into creating. But once she retired...watch out world! She loves to knit socks, scarves and hats. Then she attended a quilting class at Joann’s and the rest is history.

Early morning is her favorite time of day to piece quilts and Snuggled looks forward to seeing her creations each month. Her current favorite project is always everyone’s Christmas gift. (Can we get on that list? LOL)

PS: Deb told me a story about posing with a quilt but I am sworn to secrecy !

THANKS SO VERY MUCH for your many contributions to
