VOLUNTEER – Judy G Lexington Sew Day

Judy grew up along Walker Lake Rd in fields that are no longer there. If you are not familiar with the area, it is where GFS, Menard, Taco Bell and Route 30 are now in Mansfield/Ontario. She watched the good and the bad happen.

Judy was taught to sew on an old black Singer sewing machine by her mother, Marilyn, who was part of the founding group that now meets in Lexington. Sadly, her mother has dementia and can no longer attend, but the legacy continues on through Judy.

Life for Judy included raising her daughter and working for Aetna as a nurse trainer; this was her favorite part of working for them.

Now Judy enjoys watching the fabrics come together into a creation of a quilt.

THANKS SO VERY MUCH
