VOLUNTEER – KATHY

Milan Sew Day

Embroidery, cross stitching, making clothes, rug hooking, crocheting, crewel are all hobbies that Kathy has learned over the years and still does most of them now that she retired after 40 years working in a hospital medical lab. But quilting is the one that loves more than the others.

Married to her husband of 19 years, and has a son, Kathy will make sure her brand new grand-daughter will stay cozy under plenty of quilts and knitted items as she grows.

An avid outdoor lover you might see her driving her Harley on day trips, kayaking, golfing, hiking or relaxing with a good book.

What draws Kathy to SIHQ?

“Well, who can say no to a day of sewing,
making something to give away,
and the friendly chit-chat among the volunteers.”

And we are so glad you are here, Kathy!
And THANKS SO VERY MUCH
for your many contributions to Snuggled in Hope Quilts
