VOLUNTEER – MARY ANN

Some of you may know Mary Ann from her many years working at JoAnn's.

Farming from an early age she helped with Jersey cows with her father, then she married a farmer.

Mary Ann started sewing in 4-H. Growing up, her mother made all of her clothes. Mary Ann calls herself a Piecer NOT a Quilter.

She is always willing to help out. She is Penny's right-hand person as she sews most of the backs together so the quilts can get quilted.

"Old Faithful" is a 1985 Kenmore sewing machine and is Mary Ann's favorite piecing tool.

We are so very glad that you joined us!
Thanks from everyone at Snuggled In Hope Quilts.
