Senior Pastor of Kingdom Life Evangelistic Ministries Virginia Beach, VA

Bishop Richard Groover Sr. was born in Harlem New York and is a product of New Covenant Holiness Church under the leadership of Archbishop James M. Temples. After being raised in the church young Groover joined the navy and began to live the life of the prodigal son.

After 7 years of that lifestyle he came to himself and returned home to the church. Since then he has served the ministry in just about every capacity from the cleaning committee to worship leader.

In 2001 he was ordained and installed as the pastor of Revival Temple of Christ by his father and pastor Bishop Johnny W. Groover Sr. , acting senior bishop of New Covenant Holiness Churches. God began to use him to minister throughout the country and aboard naval ships. In 2008 after much prayer he planted a new ministry "Kingdom Life Ministries". His ministry has transitioned into Kingdom Life Evangelistic Ministries a nontraditional outside the box church.

He was consecrated to the office of Bishop in April of 2013 and enthroned as the Presiding Bishop of Kingdom Covenant Churches Intl. Bishop Groover has a Master's degree in Business Administration. He is the father of two Jazmine and Richard II and reside in Chesapeake, Va.
