

Working Alone – Quiz

1. Working alone could apply all of the following occupations, except?
  - a. Sales representatives, include real estate agents
  - b. All-Night Convenience store and service station attendants
  - c. Department store employees working during the daytime
  - d. Rural and agricultural workers
2. True/False? Working alone is working in circumstances where assistance is not readily available in the event of injury, ill health or emergency.
  - a. True
  - b. False
3. _____ should determine if it is safe for an employee to be working alone?
  - a. The employer
  - b. The employee
  - c. An OSHA official
  - d. The police
4. Before working alone, the employee should _____.
  - a. Notify others. They should let their manager or supervisor know when they will be working and what they will be doing, and ensure they have approval to work alone.
  - b. Ensure they have a way to contact emergency services in their workspace.
  - c. Assess the risks of the activity with their supervisor beforehand.
  - d. All of the above
5. Ideally, the _____ should identify foreseeable events that may lead to an emergency.
  - a. Manager or Supervisor
  - b. The risk assessment
  - c. The employee
  - d. Safety meeting
6. There are several types of buddy systems, including all except:
  - a. Lunch buddy
  - b. In-person buddy
  - c. Semi-in-person buddy
  - d. Live or asynchronous remote buddy

7. True/False? There are no work functions that cannot be performed alone.
  - a. True
  - b. False

8. Employers should establish _____ to alert coworkers and supervisors that help is needed.
  - a. Code words
  - b. A shift schedule
  - c. Lockout Tagout
  - d. A safety meeting