Join CPG!

CPG helps our local concrete construction industry through awareness, education, information and promotion of quality concrete construction. Decision makers are more likely to consider concrete as their building material of choice when they are better informed of the long lasting benefits of concrete. CPG is a combined force of manufacturers, suppliers, contractors, architects and engineers that know the benefits of concrete. Their knowledge is brought together into one organization. Promoting all the benefits of concrete gives our industry a competitive advantage over other building materials. CPG promotes concrete for the local Kansas City market place. We grow the pie so you can grow your piece of the pie.
