

HELEN SANDERS
5-10-2021
AS UNTO THE LORD

One of my favorite verses is Colossians 3:23 which reads, “And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily as to the Lord, and not unto men.” This verse defines the servant’s heart. Remember, Jesus said we are to serve and not be served. He came as a humble servant, not wielding his rights as God in the flesh.

You see my friends if someone is a Christian Jesus Christ lives within their spirit. He is “in them” and they are “in him.” When we treat someone poorly that is a Christian, it is as if we are treating Jesus poorly. If we would think of this before we act then there would be less arguing in the “Christian” circle, less division in churches, and less arguments in Christian marriages.

It doesn’t say do it occasionally, it says “whatsoever ye do.” Whatsoever is everything we do. Can you imagine if everyone started doing whatsoever, they would do as unto the Lord? I think there would be a big change in relationships. I think there would be a big change in churches. Perhaps we would see revival come.

I challenge you to start doing your “whatsoevers as unto the Lord” daily. Before you speak ask yourself “would Jesus do this?” Before you condemn someone ask yourself “would Jesus say this?” Before you watch something on television and the internet, ask yourself this question: “would Jesus watch this?” I think we would see a lot of changes, don’t you? So, are you up to the challenge?