PROVERBS 11:18-19

Proverbs 11:18-19 (MEV Modern English Version) says, “The wicked works a deceitful work, but to him who sows righteousness will be a sure reward. As righteousness tends to life, so he who pursues evil pursues it to his own death.”

Satan is the master of deceit. He will deceive people then use those people to deceive other people. It has been around ever since Satan deceived Adam and Eve in the garden. A perfect example of this is the 2020 election process in America which has brought deceit to a new higher level than previously ever seen.

This passage of scripture says they who are deceitful end up paying for it through death. Sometimes it could be natural physical death but not always. What it does always do is lead to eternal death after this life.

Righteousness through Christ leads (tends toward) eternal life. Sometimes the righteous ones may face torture, prison, or death due to their faith on the Righteous One (Jesus), but they have a sure and certain reward in the life hereafter.

Whatever evil may set upon you, keep your focus stayed upon the path of righteousness. It will deliver your soul.
