WRONGFULLY ACCUSED

Have you ever been wrongfully accused? Were you ever blamed for something that someone else did? Have you ever been lied about, and it tarnished your reputation?

You are not alone. Jesus completely understands these kinds of things. He was falsely accused by “religious people” that wanted to “get rid of him.” It would be like having a great anointing on your life and the leaders of a church don’t want you in their church.

What do you do when this happens? If Jesus is our example, then we must follow what he did. He did not argue with his accusers. He did not call down a legion of angels to destroy them. He did not slander them. From the cross he said, “Father forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

It is difficult for us to understand how he could do that, but he knew they were blinded to truth. Satan blinds people and this is what causes situations like these. We are told to bless those that curse us and pray for those that spitefully use us. Easy? No, but when we learn to do this, then we become more like our Lord who was wrongfully accused and did just that. He gave them the grace praying that one day they would repent.

We must pray for those that do the same to us. We must ask God to bless them in spite of what they have done. This releases them and it releases us. If we don’t, we may end up with a bitter heart that leads to self-destruction. God has the final say about things, and He will take up your cause for you without having to fight in the flesh.
