HEALING – THE CHILDREN’S BREAD

He sat on a futon in our store. His wife asked me if I knew someone that had a ministry of healing. I told her that God had used me in that respect and asked her who needed healing. She told me it was her husband who was sitting by me.

I often pray for people and do not question their relationship with the Lord, but this time I felt that I needed to witness to her husband before praying.

In Matthew 16:21-28 a non-Jewish woman came to Jesus asking him to have mercy on her daughter who was vexed with a demon. He told her that he was sent to the lost sheep of Israel and not to those that were not Israelites. Instead of walking away discouraged, she came and worshipped him. Jesus went on to say in Matthew 15:26, “But he answered and said, ‘It is not meet (proper) to take the children’s bread (healing), and to cast it to dogs’.”

This did not discourage the woman either. She replied with: “and she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

Jesus then told her in verse 28, “...O woman, great is thy faith; be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.”

When I pray for someone that is a Christian, I know that healing is their “bread” to receive because Jesus is their “bread of life.” Healing is part of the covenant we have with God. I will pray for both believers and non-believers, but in this case, I wanted to see this man receive all that God would give his “children.”

I witnessed to him and he received salvation. I then prayed for him, and the stage 4 esophageal cancer left his body. He was able to talk normal and it changed his life. I truly believe that God sent this man and his wife to my business because he knew that he needed salvation more than he needed a physical healing.

Do you need that “healing bread”? Then take this scripture and claim the healing for yourself. It is yours if you are a child of God. He is more than willing to bring it to you by faith, just like he did to that Canaanite woman that pressed in until she received!
