PSALM 34

Sometimes it is good just to share the Word. Let us meditate on this psalm of David.

Psalm 34 (MEV). “I will bless the LORD at all times. His praise will continually be in my mouth. My soul will make its boast in the LORD; the humble will hear of it and be glad. Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His name together.

I sought the Lord, and He answered me, and delivered me from all my fears. They looked to Him and became radiant, and their faces are not ashamed.

This poor man cried, and the LORD heard, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD camps around those who fear (reverential awe) Him and delivers them.

Oh, taste and see that the LORD is good. Blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him. Oh, fear (reverence) the LORD, you His saints (all born again believers); for the ones who fear Him will not be in need. The young lions are in want (lack) and suffer hunger, but the ones who seek the LORD will not lack any good thing.

Come, you (my) children, listen to me. I will teach you the fear of the LORD.”

Read it, then re-read and meditate upon it. Be encouraged in it.
