ORDERED STEPS

We were out of town today and we stopped at a gas station to use the restroom. I could hear a woman talking in one of the stalls and suddenly the Holy Spirit spoke to me. He said tell her, "checkmate". As I left my stall and washed my hands she was still inside the other stall, so instead of waiting to speak to her, I walked out of the restroom and went to my car to proceed home.

I was pondering what the Lord had said when this woman walked out of the gas station. I knew in my spirit that she was the same woman. I asked her if she had been in the restroom and she said, "yes." I then told her what the Lord told me to say. She started to shout and said, "Confirmation, confirmation." We spoke briefly, but before she left, she said, "God has a way of confirming what he says."

Now, I had not planned on speaking to anyone today specifically, but I know that God orders our steps. Psalm 37:23 says, "The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way." God had a plan today for that woman, and I am glad I was part of it. Even though I left that gas station, he saw that she came out in time to hear what God had said to me for her.

Are you allowing God to order your steps? He wants to be involved in every area of your life. You don't have to be an Apostle, Prophet, Pastor, Evangelist, or Teacher to hear from God. Ask him to use you and He will.
