

RUSSELL SANDERS
4-22-2020
THE FULLNESS THEREOF

Psalm 24:1, "The earth is the LORD'S, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein."

The fullness of the earth belongs to God. Yahweh (Jehovah) is its' creator, so He owns everything that pertains to the earth. Ps. 50:10 also affirms it. "For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills." The sheer magnitude of a "thousand hills" is representative of the whole earth. Ps. 50:12 (NIV) reaffirms it. "For the world is mine, and all that is in it."

It all belongs to Him, the Creator. If you have any lack (want), can He not fill it? It is His, so He is free to distribute to whomever He pleases. As a good Father, He distributes good things to His children. You have a right to ask for distributions. John 15:7 (KJV) Jesus says, "...ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." James 4:2 says, "...ye have not, because ye ask not." Furthermore, Jesus said (John 16:24), "...in My name, ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full." Matthew 21:22 Jesus again says, "and all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Yes, He said believe it; do not doubt.

Some people of wealth may say, "I am a self-made man." That is a prideful boast. They would have little if God had not given them (or their family) the ability to acquire that wealth. Such pride ultimately leads to destruction or eternal damnation. I would say to them, "Humble yourself; acknowledge God and the portion of His fullness that He bestowed upon you or your family." Humility and meekness are marks of good and righteous character.

If you are in need, in a position of lack, ask God to fill it. It is all His. Ask, and believe; Father will take care of you.