LET EVERYTHING PRAISE THE LORD

Psalm 98:2 (NKJV) says, “The LORD [Jehovah] has made known his salvation [Jeshuah]. His righteousness he has revealed in the sight of [all] the nations.” Vs. 3b, “All the ends [uttermost parts] of the earth have seen the salvation [Jeshuah] of our God.”

As a result in verses 7-8 it says, “Let the sea roar... Let the floods clap their hands...Let the hills be joyful together.”

God’s glory is visible throughout his entire creation; therefore, we should do what verse 4 says, “Shout joyfully to the LORD [throughout] all the earth. Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises.”

The oceans and all bodies of water, together with the hills [mountains, and geographical figures] will joyously glorify God for his righteous judgments. Evil shall not win.

All creation testifies of the Lord. And he especially cherishes the praises of the race of ‘adam [humanity]. So, let us take a moment to praise him. Do it often. He will shower you with his goodness.
