

A PROPHETIC WORD
AS GIVEN TO HELEN SANDERS
12-6-2020
PURIFICATION FIRES

For this is the hour that things are about to change. For I am bringing things into place for my return saith the Lord. I am bringing purification to my people, my church, and to the world. This time it will not come with a flood, but it will come with fire. Both in the natural and in the spirit realm. For there are many things that need to be burned away to bring forth the purity that I desire saith the Lord. For in this hour it may seem painful as these things are removed but I would say to you that the burning must take place.

Are you willing to be purified my child? Would you stand before me on that great wedding day with spots and blemishes or are you willing to have them removed. I would say that your desire is to please me, and therefore this is necessary. Do not think that it is the big things alone that I am removing for that would not be the case. For I look at the deep areas of your being and I will remove those little things too that have hindered your walk and hindered the purity I so desire.

Do not look at the fires as your enemy. Look at the fire as being purification. As with Esther of long ago, it took the purification process to come before the wedding so I shall do it with you. Draw close to me in these hours saith the Lord and feel the comfort of my Holy Spirit through the process. For there is nothing that I would have you do unwillingly. I would say yield your entire being to the process so you will come forth as pure, fine gold, prepared for me the soon coming bridegroom.

I love you my child and would have you know that this hour will bring a newness of life to you and those around you through the process. So, come to me and spend time with me as we go through this process together saith the Lord.
