FAITH REST

Psalm 37:7 says, “Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him.”

As a young man, I read a book that taught me the concept of “faith rest.” You believe the Word of God; you know it is true and His promises are sure. You pray over a matter, and then you let your faith “rest upon” Him. You know He will have the matter “well in hand” although you don’t know the “when” of it.

You cannot fret over it. You cannot worry about it. You have given it over to Him and you expect in full confidence in His faithfulness. This is how you “rest your faith” upon Him.

Be aware that God’s timetable is not the same as yours. Be patient. He is an “on time” God. He is never too late, and He is not too early. He knows the “fullness of its time” better than you or I do.

In this “faith rest” you can “see” with your hearts eye the fulfillment. The sight of with your natural eye will come in His time, not yours, but it will come.
