SHIELDS UP

With all that is happening around the world since the assassination of a conservative Christian, many are wondering what is coming next.

I see a great awakening of Christians that have been riding the fence. They are making the decision to stand for truth.

I see people crying and coming to know the Lord because of this tragic event. Many are going to church that have not been in church in years.

Then I also see the dark side rising up in battle against those walking in the light. I was pondering this when the Lord gave me a vision of many shields joining together like the ancient Norse or Vikings when there was a battle. The shields were so tightly joined together that the arrows could not penetrate the coming together of the shields.

This is what must take place with the battle raging fiercer than ever. Shields must be up continuously, and we must wear the armor of God continuously. Remember, the shield in the armor is deflecting the fiery darts of the enemy.

I made a brief video about this on Friday. Here is the link to YouTube to watch it. Click here or the link below. We must come into unity and fight the fight of faith and see a mighty move of God.
