GLORY AND HONOR

Psalm 30:2-3 says, “O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave [death sentence]. Thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.”

Psalm 30:11-12 says, “Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing. Thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness to the end [purpose] that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent. O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.”

I am eternally grateful to God for redeeming me [buying me back] from sin, death, the grave, and hell. That act of redemption cost Jesus everything, but he did it for love. It was his love for the Father and for all the souls given to him by the Father [including you and me]. It was love that sent Jesus to the cross.

I rejoice in His love and salvation. Without Jesus' love, where would I be? “I will give thanks [and praise] unto Thee forever.” Unto Jesus be all glory, laud, and honor. Glory unto God my Father, and to His chosen Son.
