JUST RULERSHIP

Proverbs 4:18 (NIV) says, “The path of the righteous (just) is like the morning sun, shining ever brighter till the full light of day.”

This speaks of the necessity for a ruler to be just and righteous in his rulership. It brings light (truth) to the nation as all his actions and decisions are “in the sunshine.” There is no secret (or evil) agenda to hide.

Verse 19 says (NIV), “But the way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know what makes them stumble.” They are in deep darkness because they do not have “the fear of the Lord” in them. They are heading down a path to disaster and they do not know it, nor do they truly understand the consequences. This describes the present condition of America in its politics, its social agenda, its new laws, and public (government dictated) education system.

II Samuel 23 gives King David’s final message before his death. In verses 2-4 David said that God spoke to him and said (NKJV) “He who rules over men must be just (righteous), ruling in the fear (reverence) of God. And he shall be like the light of the morning when the sun rises.”

For more than two hundred years from 1776, we have had presidents over America who respected biblical values. We no longer have that. Our rulers are in darkness.

Satan is gleefully declaring victory. Are we, as Christians, going to stand aside and do nothing?

We need an army of prayer warriors to rise up and break the chains of darkness. We need Christian warriors who will march out under Christ’s banner and take back what Satan has stolen from us. Are you one?
