KNOWING IN YOUR KNOWER

Before we are born again, our spirit is dead towards the things of God. You could say it does not “know” spiritual things. In 1 Corinthians 2:14-15 it says, “14But the natural man [old nature] receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 15But he that is spiritual [born again] judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.”

Often, I have heard people say about those of the world, “Why are they doing those things? Don’t they get it?” Well, there is no way for the unregenerate person to understand spiritual things because they are not discerned with the mind. They cannot “get it” because they are dead spiritually towards the things of God.

Once we have received the Lord, then we understand things as the Holy Spirit guides us and as we study the scriptures. Our renewed spirit is alive toward the things of God. I like to call our renewed spirit our “knower.” You could say that we know things in our “knower” the renewed spirit.

Often, when we hear someone say something not scriptural, our “knower” sends out a warning, “NO, NOT TRUE” and we disregard what is said because it is not truth.

Have you felt things in your “knower” that were truth? Then, the Holy Spirit is guiding you. Have you felt things that were off in your “knower”? Then the Holy Spirit is guiding you also.

We cannot go wrong listening to our “knower.”
