NO FAULT INSURANCE

I live in a state where someone can get just “no fault” insurance. This means when an accident happens, their own insurance company pays for losses, regardless of the source of the cause of loss. In other words, it is like no one is responsible for their actions.

I see our nation in this state. No one wants to take responsibility for what they are doing. This one blames that one, and that one blames someone else. The anger level is very high under this kind of living. Murders have increased in the U.S. by 30% during the “pandemic.” People are out of control.

When did this kind of thing start? It started in the Garden of Eden when Eve blamed the serpent for what she did, and then Adam blamed God. God asked him what he had done. If you hadn't given me this woman, I would never have done this was his reply. So, ultimately Adam blamed God for his “no fault” actions.

Sin causes us to blame everyone but ourselves. You can do this, but it will eventually be used by Satan to legally have permission to try you in God's court. Yes, you may be born again, but when you sin you open the gate for Satan to legally try you. There is no insurance that can keep you from hell, only the shed blood of Jesus Christ applied to your sin gives you “assurance” that you have been pardoned.

Should no fault insurance be a state program? I don't think so. It takes the responsibility off the “guilty” party and there is no clear determination of guilt. Unlike no fault car insurance, the price Jesus had to pay to give you the assurance of salvation cost him his life. He took the blame and set you free. Now we should live our lives to please Him. After all, He paid the price as if He did it himself. This is the least that we can do for him.
