THE SEVEN PRAYER MOUNTAINS – LESSON 11
CONCLUSION

We have completed the series on the Seven Prayer Mountains, also known as the “Seven Mountains of Society.” They are called “mountains” because they have a huge mountain-like influence in society. In review, we looked at these seven:

1. Media
2. Government
3. Education
4. Business (economy)
5. Religion
6. Family
7. Arts and Entertainment

These seven influences mold who we are as a nation. As it presently stands, these mountains all have moved us from the God-fearing nation based on Judeo-Christian values that this country was founded upon. It has moved us so far to the left that President Barack Obama declared “This country is not a Christian nation.” That statement was shocking, alarming, and disappointing, but there is sufficient evidence to back it up.

How do we change it? Jesus said in Matthew 17:20 (NKJV), “For assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.” Mountain-moving faith can bring a shift in these seven aspects of society from a godlessness toward godliness.

It is a two-pronged effort. First is the prayer foundation. Prayer moves mountains in the heavenlies where the warfare is waged. This is the task of prayer intercessors and prayer warriors.

The second prong is ground level action. Prayer lays the foundation, but people must get actively involved. Some need to take jobs or make careers in these areas and boldly take a stand for godliness; many need to rise up into leadership positions. Many others may become activists who publicly make a stand, out in the open, the marketplace.

We all need to do something to influence one of these mountains. Ask God to help you identify your part. Search your heart and your thoughts to see which of these areas are of most interest to you, then pursue it.

Jesus said in Matthew 5:13 (NKJV), “You are the salt of the earth...” Salt added to any food alters its taste; it influences anything to which it is added. We must be that salt to influence our society for the kingdom of heaven. You are the salt that pours out from Jesus’ saltshaker.

We must pray; all of us can do that. Then we must put legs to those prayers; some have to do that. We all can do something. Most important is soul winning. Are you in Jesus’ saltshaker? Then shake it!
