FAITH KILLERS

You probably already know this, but there are words that are absolute faith killers. Words like it's impossible; I'm too tired; Nobody really loves me; I can't go on; I can't do it; I'm afraid; and so many more.

These words steal faith right out of our hearts. They speak the opposite of what God says. We cannot have it both ways my friends. If you want to see God move in your life, then you must resolve to stop speaking unbelief!

Death and life are in the power of the tongue. [Proverbs 18:21.] You either bless yourself or curse yourself with your words.

God has an answer to every need! Of course there will be trials, but God has the answer to trials. After all, He is the one that made you, so He alone knows how to make things work for you. He has even given you a manual called the Bible to fill yourself up with words that bring life and not death.

Satan will always deceive you into believing that God does not care, but that is a lie! God gave His very best, His Son, Jesus Christ so that he can have a personal relationship with you. He is not looking for ways to not be there for you. It cost him everything so you can be sure He is going to never fail us.

Sure, we are put to the test, but that is a good thing, because they teach us how to live by faith, and not sight. Sometimes the best thing we can do is tell ourselves to "shut up," and only speak the Word of God!

Remember, you cannot have it both ways. Do not be robbed by your own words, which leads to stinking thinking, and eventually sinking. Why don't you make a determination to trust God today? He is a know it all and knows just what you need to be all that you can become.
