JUDGMENTS

The world is often oblivious to the warning judgments that come from God, such as the recent fires in California causing the loss of life and extensive damage to many people and their property, some of which are morally decadent. Floods and destructive hurricanes have also been signs of judgment.

Believers of Christ have been officially declared by Homeland Security as radical terrorists. Conservative bible-believing Christians are being targeted by our own government and by society in general.

It may not be long until Christians may be imprisoned for speaking out the truth of God's word. New laws that are being implemented will call these truths hate crimes. Are we ready for that?

You may think that it cannot happen because our U.S. Constitution prohibits it, but our constitution is already being trampled upon. There are voices that want to discard our constitution and write a new, liberal based one.

How are we to respond to the judgments that are forthcoming? First, we need to pray to God and repent of the sins of immorality of our nation, its leaders, and the church. Then, we must pray and praise God for the protection of His children, and trust that God will be faithful to bring us through what is coming.

Repentance and praise are both essential. Repentance evokes God's mercy. Praise evokes God's grace toward us.

Do not fear the judgments as they fall upon us. As we focus upon God's love, we will find power in the Name of Jesus. We will be of sound mind and walk without fear. We will respond from a foundation of love. We will stand upon 2 Timothy 1:7, "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

We do not fear God's judgments when our hearts are right with God. The judgments are for the unrighteous.
