THE PEACE THAT PASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING

As some of you know, I was recently in the hospital. I had passed out and gashed the back of my head. They transported me from central Florida to Port Saint Lucie on the east coast because of the tornadoes that were spawned off the hurricane.

Russell went there with me even though he had been very weak. They fixed a chair bed for him to rest. I had gone into Afib several times and was lying in my bed with Afib again. That is when I had a vision. I saw Jesus walk into my room. He walked over to where Russell was resting and lifted him up into his arms. He turned his face towards me, and said, "Russell is too heavy for you to carry right now. I am going to carry him." Then he walked over to my bed and said to me, "I am going to carry you now too."

Instantly a peace and calmness came over me and I knew everything would be all right. It was the peace that passes all understanding. I surrendered Russell and myself to the Lord completely. Then, just as quickly as I surrendered it all to the Lord, the Afib left me. It has not come back.

I had been worried about Russell, and it caused so much stress in my body that it had caused me to pass out.

That peace that came upon me is still upon me. It is carrying me through these hard days as Russell was admitted into the hospital and we found out he had a blockage. They put a stent into his artery, removing the blockage. He no longer is in labored breathing, and his strength is coming back.

Philippians 4:6-7 says, "6 Be careful (worried) for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. 7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

I can attest when you give your burdens to God and let him carry you that everything changes. God cares about us, but we must give our worries, fears, struggles, and everything else to him and let him carry them, then the peace comes when we leave it with Him.
