

HELEN SANDERS
9-12-2023
YOUR CONSTANT

The dictionary describes “constant” as “a person in your life who you can always count on and trust, basically another word for best friend.”

You may have a best friend, but there will be times when they can’t be there for you. Events come up that cause this. It doesn’t mean they don’t care, but they couldn’t help that time. You may feel disappointed and maybe even angry when this happens, because you tried to be that “constant” for them. This puts pressure on someone to perform, and that isn’t right.

Proverbs 18:24 says, “A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.” This scripture is not speaking of a human friend, because our human nature causes us to fail. This friend is Jesus Christ.

In Deuteronomy 31 Moses charges Joshua about his new role that he will be taking on. In verse 6 it says, “Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.”

In Hebrews 13:5b it says, “...for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.” Then in verse 6 it says, “So that we may boldly say, The LORD is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.” He is our “constant” and is our provider of all things.

To know that the God that created the universe and all that is in it is our “constant” causes me great joy. He knows me better than anyone, and knows my every want and desire, and he knows you better than anyone else too. He loves us more than anyone could ever love us and resides within us. He is as close as the mention of his name. His Word provides us the light we need when we are in darkness. It provides the light for our path, and we need not fear going down the path because we know he walks it with us.

He is our constant and never will there be another one like him!