BUILDING A BRIDGE

Several years ago, I had a vision. I saw heaven at one end of the sky and earth at the other end. Between the two places I saw a bridge, in the shape of a cross. The Lord spoke to me and told me that the cross was the bridge that took people from a worldly life to eternal life.

Jesus is that bridge because he is the only way to the father. The bridge leads to the door, which is also Jesus. In John 10:9 it says, "I am the door, by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

We cannot get to the door without going across the bridge of the cross. We must realize that the cross is where our savior bore our sin so we could be redeemed. The cross is the way of death, but the door is the way to life.

We are called to be light and that light guides people to the bridge. Without our light, people remain in the darkness of sin. When we bring people to the bridge, then pray for their salvation, they cross the bridge and the door opens so they can go in.

We must be bridge builders, my friends, to show people the way to that door.
