

HELEN SANDERS
PROPHETIC WORD
4-24-2021

As the rain falls and brings refreshing to the earth and all that I have created, I am sending a rain to your dry and thirsty soul. You have longed for this refreshment through the dry spells, and you have certainly been faithful through these dry spells also. I have tested you in the furnace of affliction and am bringing you forth refined and ready to go forth and be what I have purposed for you. Now rise up and lift up your face to this rain and let it saturate you in spirit, soul and body. For I am doing a new thing in your life. Yes, I am doing a new thing. The former things are passed away, and I am doing a new thing. You have certainly been tested and have been tempered for such a time as this, and you will stand tall and strong in this hour because you have been found faithful. Look not at what I am doing in others, for this change is a one on one from me. I have refined you for this hour, and you shall rise up and be all that I have called you to be. Yes, the fires have been hot, but you shall go forth with the fire upon you, burning away the darkness in people's lives and will see many set free. Do not look at what I have done in the past, for this is a new hour and a new thing that I am doing for and through you. So once again, rise up and receive this rain for it will not only quench you, but it will also flow from you into others, and they too shall be quenched. You have not questioned me before about this you have stayed faithful, and have been found true my child, so drink freely of this refreshing rain and go forth in my power saith the Lord.
