

HELEN SANDERS
JUNE 11, 2020
PROPHETIC WORD

Just as the eye of the hurricane gives a false security that all is well and that the storm is over, there is soon to come a transition that will deceive many. There will be a calming from storms, and many will perceive that it is the beginning of things back to normal. But, my children, it is a false peace. The eye of the storm is only a temporary place until the rest of the storm comes. And with that storm there will be much damage and much chaos like the earth has never seen. For I am in the storm to bring cleansing to the land. The land has been polluted with innocent blood and I must cleanse it. Just as in the natural you prepare for the rest of the storm; you must be prepared for what is ahead. It will seem as all is peace and safety, but sudden destruction will come swiftly. I would say that this is the time to enter into the ark of my peace and know that that is the only place that there is true safety from the storm. For as in the days of Noah, I shut him in with myself for the days preceding the wrath that came upon the earth. You must shut yourselves in my children, for in that place, the ark of my safety and the ark of my presence is the only place that true peace comes. I love you and want you to know that these days ahead will be hard for many that do not seek me. There will be cries and terror like you have never seen. So, come aside now, and enter in and be prepared for what is about to take place. The eye of the storm will come first, then the destruction. For those that dwell in me there will be peace saith the Lord.