AN EAR TO HEAR

Jesus spoke to the Apostle John in the Book of Revelation through a divine revelation. He appeared in chapter 1 clothed with a garment down to his feet with a golden belt. His head and hair were white like wool and his eyes were as a flame of fire. This describes Jesus as the one to bring judgment. The fire will burn things out of lives.

In chapters 2 and 3 he speaks to the candlestick of 7 different churches. The candlestick is the Pastor. There were some harsh words given yet encouragement but each message to these churches ended with "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches."

Sadly, none of these churches are functioning as they were in the time of the Apostle John. They apparently did not listen to the warning that was given.

We are living in the season where God is speaking again. He is giving revelation to his prophets and to others. He is saying it is time to get things right. He is saying that judgment is upon the earth. He is saying that there is no time to ride the fence.

There is coming a great separation. The separation is the separating of the sheep (believers) from the goats (non-believers). It is a time to decide who you stand with. If you stand with the world you will perish, but if you stand with God, you will have eternal life.

He that hath an ear to hear must listen and make that decision on this side of judgment day. When judgment day comes you cannot change your decision. It will be either for God or against him, just like the letters to the churches in Revelation, we are hearing let he that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto us individually.
