BEING STEDFAST

1 Corinthians 15:58 says, “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.”

Being stedfast is an attribute of God. His stedfast love towards us never ceases. His mercies are renewed every morning. He is the only one that we can totally trust my friend. He is our rock and our salvation.

We are to have that kind of stedfast love of God, which makes us unmoveable when the storms of life come. We anchor ourselves in Christ, and we are unmoveable when trials come.

As verse 58 says, what we do for the Lord is not in vain. It may seem like it at times, but we can always trust God’s word.

Are you weary in well doing? Remember who you are anchored in.

Have you wanted to quit your race? Remember those that endure to the end shall be saved.

Have you lost sight of the vision? Turn your eyes back on Jesus.

God’s stedfast love is upon you, and it will be there through the good and bad times. Just remember, “Christ in you is your hope of glory.” [Colossians 1:27b] He is the rock we lean on and remain stedfastly anchored in.
