

RUSSELL SANDERS
4-23-2022
JOB – LESSON 12
THE CONCLUSION

In Job 42:1-6 Job answers God with his declaration. Job affirms that God can do anything and knows every thought of a man. Job admits he had spoken of things of which he lacked understanding. He had heard of God and learned from other men things he thought he knew, “but now mine eye seeth thee.” He now had a personal intimate knowledge of Jehovah. At this point, Job had already been healed.

Now Jehovah speaks to Eliphaz in verse 7 and tells him that God’s wrath is upon him and his other two friends for speaking wrongly of God to Job. God did not speak against the younger and wiser Elihu.

God told him that they were all to bring seven bulls and seven rams from their flocks to Job to be offered up as burnt offerings for their sin. Job did so and prayed for his friends.

The LORD now blessed Job abundantly. All his brothers and sisters now came to fellowship and dine with him. They brought him money and gold jewelry to restore his wealth. His herds were restored and doubled. He had more children; seven sons and three daughters. It was said that the daughters were the most beautiful in the whole land.

In Job 42:16 it says that “after this lived Job” another 140 years and saw four generations of his progeny.