PSALM 108:12-13

Psalm 108:12-13 says, “Give us help [O God] from trouble, for vain [useless] is the help of man. [But] Through our God we shall do valiantly, for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.”

Satan brings all kinds of trouble upon us to try to get us off track from God. That trouble might come from other people or any number of other sources or ways. Money problems are a big one. But keep in mind that the devil is behind it all. That is why our source of strength and victory comes from the Lord.

As we trust Him, He will enable us to do valiantly, in bravery, bearing all things for his glory. He brings those of us who trust him into victory for the sake of his glory.

Beware of the temptation to take glory to yourself. God is jealous and will not share his glory with any person.

Give all praise, all honor, and all glory to God alone, to the Father and to Jesus. That may seem hard to do when you are still in the middle of a tough situation but praising him will get you through it.

The sacrifice of praise from your lips will overcome every adversity. Keep on praising him. Never quit. You are his valiant soldier and Jesus is your captain.
