ANGELS ON ASSIGNMENT

This past Sunday I was getting ready for our LIVE Church service on YouTube and Facebook. As I was getting dressed, I decided to wear a certain necklace and earrings that I have had for a while. When I went to get them out of my jewelry box, there was an earring missing. I looked for it but couldn't find it. I wore something else.

Later than day I went back to the jewelry box and looked in every drawer. I have a large standing jewelry box, and it has lots of stuff in it. (mostly costume jewelry) I took everything out of every drawer looking for that earring. It was no where to be found. I looked in the bathroom where I thought I might have laid it, but it wasn't there. I looked in the bedroom and it was not there. It was gone. I thought perhaps I had dropped it on the floor and vacuumed it up. I didn't really want to go through the dirt.

Then the thought came to mind about angels being ministering spirits for us from Hebrews 1:14 where it says, "Are they not all ministering (serving) spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?" I decided to pray about the earring, and in my prayer, I commissioned my angels to find that earring and bring it back from wherever it was.

The next morning, I was in the bathroom, and underneath the standing jewelry box was the earring. It was not there the day before. It was not anywhere to be found. My prayer was answered. I know that it was brought to me by an angel. How and when I do not know, but it was.

If God cared enough about me to bring back an earring, how much more does He care about a "lost" loved one. Have you asked God to bring them into the kingdom? I think we should ask angels to bring them to God! God is so serious about lost things! He told the story about a lost lamb and left 99 other sheep to go find it.

Whatever you need, God will provide. Do not hesitate to ask and commission your angels to help!
