

Jill Lowe is a Mooresville native and together with her husband, Robbie are parents to 2 adult children, Kramer and Sydney. They are also grandparents to 3; Zane, Evie and Foster. Jill is employed at Davidson College and is a charter member of Freedom Connections and Old Mill Ministries since 2007. She serves on the Freedom Connections Board as Secretary & Treasurer. Jill is very involved in outreach ministry and loves helping to meet needs in the community. Jill opened the Maidens and Matrons Boutique in 2018 which provides undergarments and feminine hygiene products to women locally and regionally. Jill is also the Founder and President of Felicity Manor, a future residential care facility for widowed women.