

Reject Globalism - Embrace Patriotism

Vision Statement

It is our vision to connect like minded people of all races and religions and encourage equal expression from all perspectives without fear of animus. To that end we believe that government should be of laws, not of individual men and women. That economic justice can best be won by free people through free enterprise. That by so doing we can build an America where freedom, opportunity, and society thrive.