

Earnestine Robinson Williams

Oconee County School Board

wearnestine86@gmail.com

864-784-5022

Earnestine Williams is a retired administrator with 32 years of experience in education. Her career as an educator includes serving as first-grade teacher, elementary school principal, and former Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources for the School District of Oconee County.

Earnestine received her Bachelor's Degree in Early Childhood Education and her Master's Degree in Elementary Education and Administrative Supervision from Clemson University. She lives in Seneca, SC, and is married to Gene Williams. They have two daughters, Leah and Anna, and a granddaughter, Sophia.

Mrs. Williams grew up on a small tobacco farm in Mullins, SC. She believes that education is the key to thriving communities and promotes excellence in education for all students. She believes in maintaining high expectations for student learning by supporting teachers and building partnerships with families and community leaders.