

Thomas Topolski

Board Member

Tom Topolski is a dynamic, results-oriented management executive with 36 years of experience, including 21 years internationally. Tom's focus is in corporate operations, program management and delivery, business generation and strategy. He has demonstrated experience in implementing change, business improvement, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate governance. He continues to be successful at developing and implementing comprehensive business policies and systems, delivering commercial success, and ensuring client satisfaction.

As Executive Vice President and Market Leader for Parsons Connected Communities business, which include Aviation, Rail and Transit, Smart Vehicle Solutions, Intelligent Transportation Systems, Smart Cities and Integrated Delivery. Parsons is a digitally enabled solution provider in the Infrastructure, Defense & Security Markets with over 16,000 employees and top line revenues exceeding $4 billion. Parsons delivers cyber/converged security, technology-based intellectual property, and other innovative services to federal, regional, and local government agencies, as well as to private industrial customers globally.

“... to be visionary, I feel that you need to be an unabashed optimist and believe in the power of the human spirit to strive for solutions that will make our world better for our children and grandchildren.”

Tom obtained his Bachelor of Science in Urban Regional Analysis and Planning at the State University College of New York at Buffalo and a Master of Urban Planning at New York University. He has also completed advanced management programs at the University of Pennsylvania, The Wharton School and the Pennsylvania State University, Smeal College of Business. Tom is Vice Chairman on the International Road Federation Board of Directors. He is also a Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional (CCEP-I) and a Certified Planner by the American Planning Association.